Privacy Policy

Strathmere Fishing and Environmental Club

Effective Date: February 20, 2026

1. Our Organization

The Strathmere Fishing and Environmental Club ("the Club," "we," "our," or "us") is a nonprofit, community-based organization dedicated to fishing education, environmental stewardship, conservation, and community engagement. We value the trust of our members, volunteers, donors, and visitors and are committed to protecting your personal information.

This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, and protect information when you interact with our website or participate in our activities.

2. Information We Collect

a. Information You Voluntarily Provide

We may collect personal information that you choose to share with us, including:

- Name
- Email address
- Phone number
- Mailing address
- Membership, volunteer, or event registration details
- Donation information (processed through secure third-party services)

b. Information Collected Automatically

When you visit our website, we may automatically collect limited technical information such as:

- IP address
- Browser and device type
- Pages visited and time spent on the site
- General location data (city/state level)

This information helps us understand how our website is used and improve our educational and outreach efforts.

3. How We Use Information

As a nonprofit organization, we use information solely to support our mission. Specifically, we may use information to:

- Manage memberships and volunteer participation
- Organize fishing trips, cleanups, meetings, and educational programs
- Communicate news, newsletters, and event updates
- Process donations and issue acknowledgments or receipts
- Improve website performance and security
- Comply with legal, regulatory, or record-keeping obligations

4. Cookies and Website Analytics

Our website may use cookies or basic analytics tools to understand visitor traffic and improve functionality. Cookies do not typically identify you personally. You can control or disable cookies through your browser settings if you prefer.

5. Sharing of Information

The Strathmere Fishing and Environmental Club does not sell, rent, or trade personal information.

We may share limited information only:

- With trusted service providers (such as email services or payment processors) who help us operate our website and programs
- When required by law or necessary to protect the rights, safety, or property of the Club or others

All service providers are expected to handle information responsibly and only for authorized purposes.

6. Donations and Payments

Donations made through our website are processed by reputable third-party payment processors. The Club does not store full credit card or banking information on its own servers. We encourage donors to review the privacy policies of those payment processors.

7. Children's Privacy

Our website and programs are intended for a general audience. We do not knowingly collect personal information from children under the age of 13 without parental or guardian consent. If you believe a child has provided personal information to us without consent, please contact us and we will promptly address the issue.

8. Data Security

We take reasonable administrative and technical steps to safeguard personal information. While no system can guarantee absolute security, we strive to protect information in a manner appropriate for a nonprofit community organization.

9. Your Choices and Rights

You may:

- Opt out of receiving emails or newsletters at any time
- Request access to, correction of, or deletion of your personal information (subject to legal or operational requirements)
- Contact us with questions or concerns about your information

10. External Links

Our website may include links to third-party websites related to fishing, conservation, or environmental education. We are not responsible for the privacy practices or content of those external sites.

11. Updates to This Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy periodically to reflect changes in our practices or legal requirements. Updates will be posted on this page with a revised effective date.
